Washington Makes Boston
Go Eleven Innings,
Then Loses.

JOHNSON DOES WELL IN EIGHT INNINGS

Clymer Bats for Him and Fans.
Cates Purposely Passes Gessler, and Laporte's Hit Wins.

It's no use. The Washington ball team is simply up against it, and the weather is too hot to worry over the matter.

That 3 to 2 beating in Boston yesterday in eleven innings was only another instance of the way things have been breaking and seem destined to break. The only hope is that from so constantly throwing bricks in our direction, Fate will eventually become muscle bound and miss the mark occasionally.

Walter Johnson pitched eight innings and showed excellent form. We are much obliged for this, but if he had won we would have liked it better. This making the other fellows break records to beat you is fine for the descriptive writers, but doesn't get you anything in the way of percentage points.

Besides, the Washington pitchers appear to have little to do with the team's standing. That they are as good a set of twirlers as can be found in the second division of the American League, or the first division either, for that matter, is something which even the myopic New York baseball writers are willing to admit, but the fact that our twirlers are holding the enemy to few of no hits is not producing results, except in the way of annoying the Hammer chorus around the circuit.

El Cates pitched the ninth, tenth, and eleventh innings yesterday, because Clymer batted for Johnson in the ninth—and struck out. In the eleventh, after a very neat double play, Boston was left with two men on bases and two out. Whereupon Cates walked Gessler, considering him the most dangerous proposition in the league. Laporte naturally made a single that scored the winning run. Wouldn't that frost you even at a hundred in the shade?

HARVARD CREWS OUT FOR TRIAL BRUSHES

RED TOP, Conn., June 24.—The Harvard crews were given their practice yesterday, the variety and freshman fights going down stream for a mile and a half, where racing starts were practiced.

The variety had the better of the freshmen in these starts, holding the stroke more regularly. On the return to the first the two crews had a sharp brush for a mile, which the variety won by a short length. The four-oared crews were sent in short stretches down stream.

UNHOLZ SIGNS FOR BOUT WITH TOM MURPHY;

BROCK GOES OFF

DAVENPORT, Iowa, June 24.—Study Unholz, who recently met defeat at the hands of Joe Gans, has been matched to fight "Harlem" Tommy Murphy twelve rounds at Boston on July 28.

Unholz was to have met Phil Brock at Los Angeles the latter part of this month, but Brock was taken sick and the match called off.

Unholz is now making his home in this city. He will shortly marry a Davenport girl.

S.S.S. FOR BAD BLOOD

When bad blood is caused from an infection of the circulation by the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, it usually shows in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots on the body, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. These general symptoms, affecting all parts of the body, show how deeply poisoned the blood becomes, and emphasizes the dangerous character of the trouble. If allowed to remain in the system the disease will finally wreck the health and break down the strongest constitution. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the virus. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure; it goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and by removing every trace of the poison, and adding rich, healthful qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. S. S. S. is the most reliable of all blood purifiers, and its concentrated ingredients of healthful vegetable extracts and juices especially adapt it to curing this insidious trouble. Write for our home treatment book, which is a valuable aid in the treatment of the different stages of the disease, and ask for any special medical advice you wish. No charge for either. Canceling of Brighton Beach Stake Events Blow to Horsemen

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Brighton Beach Racing Association has decided to cancel all of its stake events for this year, which means the loss of nearly $300,000 to horsemen.

This action was made necessary by the great decline in the daily attendance at the race tracks since the anti-betting laws went into effect. Before the law was passed the average daily attendance was 10,000. Yesterday at the Sheepshead Bay track 4,500 persons, one of the largest crowds which has gathered at a track since June 11, when Governor Hughes signed the bills, was present.

The mid-summer meeting of twenty-two days will be held at Brighton Beach as planned with over night sweepstakes, to take the place of the stakes. The overnight events will average about $400 or $500 each. Without the stakes racing will be robbed of much of its value for horsemen.

This new movement of the Brighton Beach management was foreshadowed by the action of Vice President Christopher Fitzgerald, who has been busy for several days obtaining from horsemen who had made nominations to the stakes their consent to declare off the big turf fixtures. The owners, who had only a few exceptions, willingly signed releases, which preclude any legal action against the association for failure to keep its part of the contract.

Up to today James R. Keene had not offered to release the track by the sea from its contract made with him when it accepted his entries to stakes. Mr. Keene has Colin, Celt and Ballot, his trio of champion race horses, engaged in stakes which in the aggregate are worth $100,000. Among the important events to which they are eligible are the Brighton Handicap, guaranteed to be worth $25,000; the Brighton Derby, $25,000; the Test Handicap, $10,000, and many minor races worth from $5,000 to $10,000 each.

It is understood that Mr. Keene is unwilling to have the big stake races abolished. He points to the fact that the other associations have filled their engagements to the letter of their programs with the horsemen and he is not willing that the Brighton Beach track go back on its agreement.

PACKKEY WORKS OUT WITH HIS PARTNERS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 24.—Packkey McFarland, at his South Side Athletic Club home yesterday, received a distinguished party headed by W. C. Clark, Jr., son of former Senator Clark of Montana.

For the benefit of his callers the Chicago man worked ten rounds with Harry Dunn and his two camp partners, in addition to some fast shadow boxing and bag punching. Two hundred spectators in all were present yesterday, the number of visitors is increasing daily at the camp of Welch and McFarland.

DEPARTMENTAL LEAGUE.

Torney started the trouble in the Commerce and Labor-Treasury game by sending a hot drive over first, which was good for three bases.

By a spectacular one-hand catch, Ogle robbed Gertman of a hit.

Interstate Commerce is a team that will have to be reckoned with by all pennant aspirants. Out of the last eleven games played, the babies of the league have tied two, lost one, and won eight.

Tripples were the order of the day in the west diamond, five three-baggers being pulled off during the course of the game.

Hester's wild pitch in the sixth scored a run. The ball was blocked, and Kleinschmidt tallied for second.

Richmond went up in the air in the seventh when a triple, four singles, and a base on balls scored five runs. Kinney relieved Richmond, but retired in the ninth on account of the heat, and Ogle took his place.

Graham, who sprained his ankle in the Agriculture-Interior game, expects to be in form again in about a week.

The hot weather was bad on the pitchers yesterday. The intense heat caused Baker to let down in the ninth, and the Mail Slingers got in a batting rally that netted four runs.

Ogle's wild pitch to first cut the strings between the Laboratory and team. Richmond's soar dated from that throw.

McCarthy, of Interstate, made the fourth home run of the season.

LINTHICUM ETS DOWN IN EIGHTH

Wolverine Twirler Soars
After Classy Work for Seven Innings.

A hair-raising ascension by Harmon Linthicum in the eighth inning yesterday gave Winchester the second of its series with the Brookland Club by 10 to 4.

Linthicum's first appearance on the mound in these parts since his experience with Michigan's pitching staff was watched with interest by his local admirers, who saw signs of class in his work when he was on the firing line for Eastern High School two years ago.

But even Walter Johnson has been known to let down long enough to let a few runs across the pan, although it is doubtful whether he could go our former fellow-townsmen much better on the record he set in the eighth, when the visitors scored nine runs. The Wolverine started out by fanning Cy MacDonald, and for seven innings the game was as pretty a pitchers' battle as one could wish to see. Honors were about evenly divided until Linthicum went wrong in the eighth.

Never in Danger.

Not a Brookland runner reached third. Four saw the light of second, and two were left on first. This tells the tale of Winchester's victory. Johnson, who pitched for the visitors, went the route without any lapse from the straight and narrow way and fanned eight men. He issued two passes to the Washingtonian against the local nine as compared with a clean fielding record on the part of the visitors. The team work of the Winchester league classes with the average minor league standard and the yard work combined with the hitting strength of the Virginia nine puts it among the foremost amateur organizations in this section.

The Winchester left for their home town this morning accompanied by the Brookland aggregation, which opens there tomorrow in a three-game series. The score:

	W.	L.	P.
Winchester	2	1	0
Brookland	1	2	0
Totals	3	3	0

POSTPONED GAMES - PLAYED TOMORROW

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Departmental Baseball League this morning it was decided to play the postponed games between Post and Navy tomorrow afternoon.

The games will take place on the White Lot diamond and the opener between Postoffice and the Aggies will be called at 5:15 o'clock.

This will clear up the postponed games of the previous season in the Departmental League. There is considerable interest in the league officials passed a resolution this morning to continue the policy of playing off all postponed games as soon after the schedule date as possible.

YALE OARSMEN PRACTICE STARTS AND SPRINTS; COACH PLEASED

GALES FERRY, Conn., June 24.—The Yale crews were sent out late yesterday and given light work, the time being used mostly in practicing racing starts. On the return to the boathouse all crews were given short sprints. The work of the crews was very pleasing to Coach Kennedy.

The freshmen four-oared race and the gentlemen's eight event between Yale and Harvard will be rowed this afternoon. There is considerable interest in the latter event, as it is for the cup offered by Andrew Graves, on which Harvard already has two legs.

Maxwell and Buick Leave Philadelphia Early This Morning for New York City.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—Maxwell and Buick left here this morning at 8 o'clock. Everything O. K.

At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Maxwell and Buick pulled out from the Munsey building for their trip over the roads to New York city, where they will start on Friday afternoon in the Maxwell Challenge Reliability test from Gotham to Washington.

In order to forestall any charges that the Maxwell had an advantage by changing drivers, Guy Tolman, who is driving Thomas & Tolman's entry, declared yesterday that he would cut in on Sam Luttrell's little scheme for attracting attention by sitting at the wheel for twenty-three hours and ten minutes, and drive the Maxwell all the way.

John R. Thomas, who was to have driven half the way, will remain in Washington until he receives a telegram, expected some time Saturday morning, that the contestants have arrived in New York. He will drive a Pullman over the route which the racers will take, and should meet them about fifty miles from the city.

The early departure from Philadelphia this morning indicates that the cars are several hours ahead of their schedule time. It was intended to make the run to the starting point in easy stages, and they should reach New York tomorrow morning in time to give the cars a thorough overhauling before the start on Friday.

Owing to the fact that Secretary Elliott, of the A. A. A., has been called out of the city, he will not personally superintend the affixing of the seals on Friday, as originally intended. Frank Webb, chairman of the association racing board, will superintend the start.

YALE NINE BLANKS HARVARD CRIMSON

Twirler Van Vleck Allows
But Three Scattered Hits.

NEW HAVEN, June 24.—The Yale Bulldogs chawed a 3-to-0 victory from John Harvard's sons on Yale Field yesterday afternoon.

The Elis, though beaten twice by Princeton and once by their Cambridge rivals, entered the contest determined to signalize their last appearance on their home green by a victory. They had every encouragement from a big crowd of 12,000 enthusiasts, and from hip, hip, hurrah proceedings of class day. Harvard sent to New Haven a goodly delegation of rooters, but their noise was drowned in the waves of sound that came from the stands where sat the followers of the Blue.

A heavy thunderstorm almost postponed the contest, but when Jupiter Pluvius found out what preparations the sons of Eli had made for the celebration, he retired in confusion and left only as a souvenir of his visit a soggy diamond. On this the Yalensians mopped up the Cambridge men, adding to the value of their victory by blanking their opponents.

Fail to Pass Second.

Tad Jones, as in all the Blue's big games, relied on Van Vleck to lead the Bulldogs to victory. The Montclair boy justified his captain's judgment by pitching his best game of the season against a big rival, only three scattered singles being the Crimson's portion. These were made in the first, third, and ninth innings, and no wearer of Harvard livery was able to pass second base.

Hicks, the Harvard pitcher, was much easier to find than Van Vleck, and could not check the Blue at critical times. The deciding game of the series will be played at the Polo Grounds in New York next Saturday.

The Score:

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Yale	3	11	0	0	0

HAINES CLUB TRIMS FAST WALLACH NINE

Haines Athletic Club defeated the strong Wallach team in an exciting game of baseball at Luna Park Tuesday evening.

The feature was the pitching of Merrill, allowing the Wallach sluggers but three hits, one of which was a scratch. Hoffman caught a good game for the winners and threw four beautiful outs at second and a nice one at third, also getting three hits out three times up. Roberts and Liddle were also there with the willow, each getting two nice hits.

Gray, Ford and Murray tallied three hits credited to the losers.

SHAMROCKS WINNERS.

The Shamrocks defeated the Crescents by 9 to 3 on the Active grounds. The features were the batting of Maher and the catching of Fitzgerald for the winners. Taylor pitched a good game for the losers. The same teams will meet Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The Shamrocks want games with all teams averaging 16 and 17 years. Address John P. O'Connor, 413 K street north-east.

HARRIS AGGRESSIVE WHEN COLE WEAKENS

Morris Goes to Mat in First and Third, But Comes Back Strong.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 24.—George Cole was a sick man last night, but in order not to disappoint the big crowd gathered at the Douglas Athletic Club, he said he would try to go six rounds with Morris Harris. The two put up a slashing contest, and Cole had all his usual skill and cleverness, but after boxing two or three rounds he grew weak and had to box a great deal on the defensive. In the first round he knocked Harris down, and in the third round he again brought Morris to the ground. Harris, finding that Cole was not driving the punches in as hard as usual, took the aggressive in the last two rounds, and fought as hard as he knew how. He cut Cole over the eye in the last round, bringing the blood.
